Note

The 1800 Kentucky Census has Valentine living in Woodford County, Kentucky. Valentine is also listed in the 1800 Woodford County Tax List. By 1802 Valentine had moved to Indian (1802 List of Registered Voters, Clark County, Indiana). Valentine was issued a deed on April 22, 1803 from Charles Oundsley for 100 acres in Clark County. In 1809 he was shown as in Springville Township (List of Voters). --Source, online genealogy of Randie Myers <rjm66@@pacbell.net> = = = = = --Source for the following notes: William A. Harrison <MRBIL1@JUNO.COM> The William HARMON referred to in the land sale is the William F. HARMON who married Nancy STONER's sister Elizabeth. Note: Valentine was evidently of some relation to our ancestor, Daniel Stoner, as we find Daniel listed as an heir in Valentine's will. But the records suggest that Valentine had no children, since his estate was left to his wife, and, after her death, to her nieces and nephews. Note: Valentine was listed on the tax rolls in Woodford Co, Ky, and one of his neighbors was the legendary Daniel Boone. Note: Valentine appears on the list of registered voters in Clark Co, IN in 1802. He was issued a deed to 100 acres in Clark Co from Charles Oundsley on April 22, 1803. His name was on the list of voters in Springville Twp in 1809. Note: The 1820 Census of Charlestown, Clark Co, IN lists Valentine with a total of 3 persons in his home; including himself, one female age over 45, and one male age 10-16. Valentine not found in 1830 or 1840 Census. Note: On Dec 2, 1833, William Armstrong and Nancy (Stoner), his wife, signed an indenture, selling their portion of 100 acres in Clark Co, IN, originally belonging to Valentine Stoner, and identified as being a part of Survey #211, Illinois grant and lettered "D", to William Harmon for the sum of $12.00. Wm and Nancy are identified as being legal heirs of Valentine in this document. Note: See Clark Co Deed book 37, p 322 for the sale on Feb 3, 1846 of (some thing) by the heirs of Valentine to Jacob and his wife Mary of Clark Co, and John Stoner and his wife Sarah of Vanderburg.(where is Vanderburg?) Note: See Clark Co Deed book 44, p 32 for a sale on Oct 31, 1848 by Daniel Stoner and Lydia, his wife, and Charles Daly (surviving spouse of Catherine Stoner), of their portion of 100 acres originally belonging to Valentine, and identified as being part of Survey #211, Illinois grant and lettered "D", to William Harmon for the sum of $12.00 each. Daniel and Charles were identified as legal heirs of Valentine's property.
