Thank you so much for the information. Most appreciated. Please keep me on your mailing list of any of the Jarrett's in PA. This is the main line that I'm working on, since my Jarrett's stayed in PA. I have most of the church records and census records for most of them along with a hugh roll of Jarrett's that was done by Erskine Jarrett in 1940, of the family line that was from Macungie, Lehigh Co., to Union, Snyder, Northampton, Northumberland, Lycoming, Clinton, & Centre Co., PA's. If you would like any information that I have I would love too share. I also have the line separate from our line of the Jarrett's in Montgomery Co., PA. Somewhere I also have the movement of our Jarrett's that went to NC then too TN and forged west into TX, CA etc

THIS IS ALL THE NOTES I HAVE ON OUR LINE OF JOHN JARRETT/SCHARIT/JARET/JARAT/GARRAT/GARRET/ETC

Will found in PA index for Macungie, Bucks Co., dated 22 Mar 1752, proven 16 Dec 1755. Names of sons John, Samuel, Philip, Daniel, William, Isaac, Sebastian, Edward. Dau.-Mary (Hevelly), Elizabeth(Turny), Jane, Margareth, Sarah (USGENWEB archives 21 Nov 1999)

GKL book: unknown what year John arrived in Lehigh Co., PA. There is a note in the "Colonial & Revolutionary Families of PA" (Jordan) that son William settled in Goochland Co., VA & had a son named David m. Anna Wade. "Devereaux" Jarrett was listed as a surety. One theory was that Devereux was a cousin, his ancestors being kin to John before he moved to PA. Given the theory that some Jarrett descendants believe their background to be French, Devereux could be the maiden name of and early wife.

Gkl Book: The exact year John Jarrett came to Macungie Twp., in what is now Lehigh Co., PA, is not known. No baptism records were found for any of the 13 children who survived him when he died in 1755
Land records in Bucks Co., PA (before Lehigh was formed) show 150 acres purchased 28 Jan 1735, 100 acres on 5 Oct 1737, 25 acres on 25 Aug 1748 & 100 acres on 3 Feb 1748/9. At the time of his death, he had 514 acres, which may also include 150 acres from the neighboring land of David Jarrett(relation unknown, but perhaps aka Devereux??) it is possible that the grant made to a David Jarrett on the 16 Aug 1738-150 acres. may have been transferred to John, bringing his total to 525 acres. a figure very close to the actural 514. An old Macungie Manor map shows the David Jarrett land adjacent to the John Jarrett lands.

John wrote his will in 1752 excluding his son Edward, However after his death in 1755, his children went to court saying that they had been with him in his last days 15 Dec 1755, & he had changed his mind. The Court agreed, & the children shared equally in the proceeds when the land was sold to Francis Wesco of Macungie in 1769. ----------

John JARRETT was English & was one of the first residents of the Macungie Twp., Bucks Co., PA, a Twp which would become part of the newly formed Northampton Co., in 1752. & then part of present day Lehigh Co., PA. He received the 3rd land warant issued in the Co., in 1735, the earliest grant was issued to George MOTZ on 15 Feb 1734 for 70 acres. These warrants were issued by the Penn Family. John & Anna Maria had 13 kids:
1. John Jr.,, the eldest son, who was living with his family in Philadelphia Co., in 1769 & was a storekeeper on Chesnut Hill
2. Edward, 2nd olders, continued to live in Macungie Twp., with his family until his death in 1803

3. Isaac also continued to live in Macungie Twp., until his death in 1790
4. Samuel, Lincoln Co., NC
5. Philip, single, Lincoln Co., NC, & was the first person buried in the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church Cemetery.
6. William
7. Sebastian, Germantown Twp., Philadelphia Co., PA until his death in 1775
8. Daniel, Rowan, Mecklenburg Co., NC
9. Mary (Anna Maria) married Adam Heverly & resided in Macungie Twp.,
10. Elizabeth married Daniel Tunie (Turney) & resided in Shenandoah Co., VA at the time of the 1790 Census, later moving to Washington Co., VA, & eventally to TN
11. Joan married John Wetzel & lived in Upper Milford Twp., NHampton Co., PA
12. Margaret married Frederick Sheackler (Schachler) & lived in Moore Twp., NHampton Co., PA

---------- Hi Mary! Thank you for your response to my posting about John Jarrett Sr. The information i have is this---
John Jarrett Sr. was born about 1695/1700. It is unknown whether he was born in America or emigrated from a country in which German was spoken at that time. His name has yet to be located on palatine or other ship records.however,extant church records indicate that he and his family were active in the Lutheran church. He died sometime in 1755 in Macungie,Bucks Co.,Pa.,where his will(written in english) was probated on 15 december,1775.
John was a farmer.He married Anna Maria/Mary? about 1723 in Macungie,Bucks Co.,Pa. (it has been suggested that John's wife was Mary LUKENS(nov. 1693-1722),however,her death date would tend to disprove that she was the mother of these documented children. John and Anna Maria had 13 children,all who were born in Macungie Twp., ,Bucks Co., Pa.-------they are as follows--------
John Jarett,jr---born about 1728 and died 1798------
Edward---died 1803------
Samuel---born 1730 and died 1806--
-Phillip was born 1730 and died after 1800----
William was born 1734-------
Margareth was born in April,1738 and died june 20, 1794----
-Isaac was born about 1738/39 and died in 1782-----
Mary was born in 1740-----
Sara Nan was born in 1740/41-----
Elizabeth was born in 1742----Johanna was born in 1744-----
Sebastian was born in 1744 and died in 1775----and
Daniel was born december 18,1747 and died feburary 11,1822.

I can't remember who sent me all this info,but i have a lot of it and i think that it is accurate.----thanks again!

*Other sources point out that John's will was written in German, he lived in German areas and attended a German church. Thus a French ancestry, or even a Virginian one, doesn't fit general pattern. Of course he could be from an area like Alsace Lorraine, which would make an arguable French connection, but wouldn't explain Devereux or Virginia.

Four of his children - Phillip, Samuel, Daniel, and Sarah Nan Jarrett Speigle and her family - were part of the migration of approximately 600 German families from Pennsylvania into the Lincoln County area around 1750 - 1800 (descendents wrote The Early Jarretts in Pennsylvania and North Carolina). Research Notes: ftp://ftp.rootsweb.com/pub/usgenweb/pa/bucks/history/local/d... MACUNGIE. -This township which originally embraced the territory now included in Upper and Lower Macungie, Lehigh county, is bounded on the southwest by Montgomery county. Its settlement was contemporaneous with the upper parts of Bucks and Montgomery, and the firts-comers were Germans. No doubt settlers were in the woods of Macungie soon after 1730, for when cut off from Bucks in 1752 the population was 650. The two Macungies were called Macaunsie and Macquenusie prior to 1735. In January 1730, a road was opened from their settlements to Goshenhoppen. The Moravians were among them as early as 1742, and in 1754, a congregation was organized among the settlers near the South mountain, southwest from Allentown. The inhabitants took their first steps toward the formation of a township in 1742, and on January 28th they caused it to be surveyed by Edward Scull. The area was 29,200 acres. On June 16, 1743, they petitioned the quarter sessions to lay off their township according to the survey, the petitioners stating that they had "lived there this many years without any township layed out." Their prayer was granted and the township organized as desired. The names of those who petitioned were: Jarrett's was not listed in the list though Peter Tracksler, Henry Sheath, Jeremiah Tracksler, John Ecle Frederick Rowey, Peter Walbert, Jr., Philip Smies, Joseph Albright Jacob Wagner, Melchior Smith, George Stininger, Jacob Mier George Hayn, Adam Cook, Casper Mier, Kayde Crim, John Clymer, Adam Prous.
========== [JarrettMoyers.FTW] [JarrettEdge.FBK.FTW] [JohnJarrett.FTW] The Jarretts of Mitchell County NC While searching for the origins of the Mitchell County NC Jarretts, family oral history has always maintained that they were 'Black Dutch who came from Pennsylvania". Many opinions abound concerning the term Black Dutch. The most popular current school of thought considers this to describe peoples who are darkly colored (dark hair, eyes, olive skin) and of a Germanic heritage, hence "Dutch" or Deutsche. During the mid to late 1700's, there was a large migration of German Speaking families into North Carolina from Pennsylvania. The majority of these families settled in the old Rowan and Tryon/Lincoln County area. By considering the Germanic naming conventions in use at that time (First son named after the paternal grandfather, second son named after the maternal grandfather, one daughter named after the paternal mother, and one daughter named after the mother), and evaluating wills, deeds, and Bible records, it became apparent as to which Jarrett family originally from Macungie Township, Bucks County PA were the progenitors of the latter day Mitchell County Jarretts. Macungie, Bucks County PA John JARRETT was born about 1695/1700. It is unknown whether he was born in America or emigrated from country in which German was spoken at that time. His name has yet to be located on Palatine or other ship records. However, extant church records indicate that he and his family were active in the Lutheran church. He died sometime in 1755 in Macungie, Bucks Co, PA, where his will (written in German) was probated on 15 Dec 1775. John was a farmer. He married Anna Maria/Mary ? about 1723 in Macungie, Bucks Co, PA. (It has been suggested that John's wife was Mary LUKENS (Nov 1693-1722); however, her death date would tend to disprove that she was the mother of these documented children.) John and Anna Maria had thirteen children, all who were born in Macungie Township, Bucks Co, PA: i. John Jr. (b~ 1724) He was a store keeper on Chestnut Hill in Philadelphia County, PA in 1769, where he lived with his family. He and his wife Agnes Dorothea had two known children, Johannes, b ~ 1761, baptized 24 May 1761, and George, b 27 May 1762, baptized 20 Jun 1762. ii. Edward (~1726-1803) iii. Samuel (b ~1730 - d 1806 in Lincoln Co, NC) iv. Phillip (b~ 1732) m Anna Sybilla ? v. William (b~1734) vi. Sebastian (b~1736-d 1775 in Germantown Twp, Philadelphia Co, PA)

vii. Isaac (~1738-1790) m Catherine WETZEL (b 11 Jul 1735 in Macungie). (Catherine was the daughter of Conrad WETZEL and Anna Catherine BAYER, brother to Johann Jacob Wetzel that married xii Jone JARRETT).
Isaac served as private in Capt. George Knappenberger's company, Col. George Breinig's 2nd battalion, Northampton County, Pennsylvania militia (Revolutionary War).
Isaac and Catherine's children were all born in Macungie: John, Daniel, Jacob (b 15 Sept 1769, baptized 29 Oct 1769), Henry, Isaac, Gertrude, Elizabeth, Magdalena Salome (b 1761, baptized 2 Sept 1761), Lydia (b 1 Nor 1779, baptized 8 Apr 1780)

viii. Margareth (b Apr 1738, d 20 Jun 1794, buried in Indianland Lutheran Church Cemetery, PA.) m Fredrick SHACKLER (3 Aug 1721-1 Dec 1792) in 1764 in PA. ix. Sarah Nan (b~ 1740) m John Martin SPEIGLE (b 1725/31 Germany - d 1805 Lincoln Co NC) in 1759 in Macungie, Northampton Co, PA. x. Mary (b~ 1740) m Adam HEVELLY. xi. Elizabeth (b~ 1742), m Daniel TURNEY. xii. Jone (b~1744) m Johann Jacob WETZEL (b~1744) xiii. Daniel (b~1747) m Catherine MEYER/MOYER It is supposed that Anna Maria outlived her husband John, as she is listed as an heir in his will probated in 1755. Written documents may never afford us the reason why some of the Macungie Jarretts stayed in Pennsylvania and some chose to make the difficult and dangerous trip to North Carolina. Perhaps, after Anna Maria's death, as frequently happens today, the family no longer had a reason to stay centrally located. As conditions became crowed in the Pennsylvania area, and land was opened up in the Granville area of North Carolina, at least four of John and Anna Maria's children moved to the Tryon/Lincoln (now Catawba) County area sometime between 1771 and 1774. Phillip, Samuel, Daniel, and Sarah Nan Jarrett Speigle and her family, were part of the migration of approximately 600 German families from Pennsylvania into the Lincoln County area around 1750 - 1800. Name: John JARRETT Given Name: John Surname: JARRETT Sex: M Death: Y Change Date: 1 October 2001 at 18:33 Note: John Jarrett was English and was one of the first residents of the Macungie Township of Bucks County, Pennsylvania, a township which would become part of the newly formed Northampton County in 1752, and then part of present day Lehigh County, Pennsylvania. He received the third land warrant issued in this county in 1735, the earliest grant was issued to George Motz on 15 February 1734 for seventy acres. These warrants were issued by the Penn Family. John and Anna Maria had thirteen children: John Jarrett Jr., the eldest son, who was living with his family in Philadelphia County in 1769 and was a storekeeper on Chesnut Hill; Edward Jarrett, the second eldest son, continued to live in Macungie Township with his family until his death in 1803; Isaac Jarrett also continued to live in Macungie Township until his death in 1790; Samuel Jarrett, Lincoln County, North Carolina; Phillip Jarrett, single, Lincoln County, North Carolina, and was the first person buried in the Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church Cemetery; William Jarrett; Sebastian Jarrett, Germantown Township, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, until his death in 1775; Daniel Jarrett, Rowan, Mecklenburg County, North Carolina; Mary (Anna Maria) Jarrett, married Adam Heberly and resided in Macungie Township; Elizabeth Jarrett, Married Daniel Turnie (Turney) and resided in Shenandoah County, Virginia at the time of the 1790 census, later moving to Washington County, Virginia, and eventually to Tennessee; Joan Jarrett, married John Wetzel, lived in Upper Milford Township, Northampton County, Pennsylvania; Margaret Jarrett, married Frederick Sheackler (Schachler) and lived in Moore Township, Northampton County, Pennsylvania; and Sarah Nan Jarrett, who married John Martin Speagle. Marriage 1 Anna Maria UNKNOWN Change Date: 1 October 2001 Children Samuel JARRETT, John JARRETT b: in Pennsylvania, Edward JARRETT, Isaac JARRETT, Phillip JARRETT, William

========== Jarrett's English & Scottish Descent Jan. 5, 2002 There has been considerable controversy concerning the origin of the: John Jarrett b/c 1693 d 1759 and Anna Maria of Macungie Pa. John Jarrett b/c1695 d/1755 M/ Mary Lukens of Horsham Pa. They both lived in an area of German people and married German women and for this reason many believe they too have come from Germany. Here is what the historical record says. I found four records that say John of Macungie and John of Horsham are Scottish & English. There is also a record in the book "The Pioneers of West Virginia" that says the Jarrett's came from France by way of England-Scotland. Dr. Charles Speegle's Book "The Speegles and Their Kin" pg 18 an 347 (The Speegles were neighbors) and John Martin Speegle married Sara Nan Jarrett, daughter of John and Anna Maria. Dr. Speegle says that there was a cultural adaptation among the different nationalities living together. and John of Macungie was English. The Encyclopedia of Montgomery Co Pa. by Samuel T Wiley 1895, Page 95 says they were of Scottish descent. Settlements of Horsham Twp. by Harper Smith .pg. 50. Family tradition says They were of Scottish origin Beans History of Montgomery Co 1884 page 27 >From an old English Bible in possession of the family, printed in 1715 which John Jarrett, in 1751, presented to his son John " and his heirs of his body forever and ever," it is learned that in those days, the name was spelled Jerrett, and that he and his wife, Mary emigrated from Scotland and were members of the Society of friends. (Quaker) The record shows that in 1710 John purchased 23 1/2 acres in Germantown. According to "A Partial History of the Jarrett Family" by Jay Jarrett and Morris Yoder, found in the Lincoln Co. N.C. Library, The Jarrett's have a a family line dating back to the 13th century in France. The Jarrett's left France during the Plantagenets War. They went to England and Scotland. When the Edict of Nantes was revoked, they fled to America along with other Huguenots The French pronunciation of Jarrett was Sharry. My note Many were illiterate so if a German was writing down their name it would be in German. Lowell Jarrett Hendersonville, NC
