Descendants of Johannis Peter Geber

Generation No. 1

1. JOHANNIS PETER¹ GEBER was born Abt. 1711 in Germany, and died Unknown. He married UNKNOWN. She died Unknown.

Notes for JOHANNIS PETER GEBER:

In 1760, Peter came to Liganore, PA. Later with Elder John Slifer from York and Lancaster Counties (PA) and Peter Miller, Peter Gaver settled on the Broad Run (south of Burkittsville, MD)

In 1770, he obtained from David Arnold a 49 acre tract of land know as "I Got It At Last". On the deed, his name appears as Peter Gaber. He also purchased a 30 acre tract known as "The Mountain" and on January 14, 1771 purchased adjacent land from Andrew Arnold.

Peter was a decon in the Broad Run Church of the Bretheren, now know as Pleasant View Chruch. He gave the church permission to cut timber on his land to heat the church.

During the American Revolutionary War, members of the Brethern community were fined for refusing to take the Oath of Allegiance or joining the milita. After the war, his 860 acres of land was confiscated. 815 acres were awarded to Major Joshua Harley who had saved the life of General Horatio Gates during the war.

Peter then moved to Birkittsville where he may have lived until his death. Arecord dated 1789 mentions that Peter Gaver obtained 197 acres of land which he called "Gaver's Recovery". Later David Arnold bought the old Gaver farm which remained in the Arnold family until the mid 1900"s.

Notes for PETER GAVER:

Peter Gaver was a Deacon of the Broad Run Church in Burkittsville, MD. He was accused of being a Tory during the American Revolution- as a matter of fact, the Gavers at this point were Dukards, similar to Mennonites and simply refused to fight. Most Gaver's refused to participate in the war.

By 1785 he Americanized his name to Gaver. In the years after the American Revolutionary War, he was able to get back some of the land that had been lost.

Notes for EPHRIAM GAVER:

Ephriam came to OH from MD when he was 12 yrs old and worked as a farm hand with a family near Tiffin, OH for year after he arrived. He stayed with them for 16 years but also educated himself. In fact he graduated from the Ohio Academy (later to become Heidelberg University in Tiffin). He even taught a couple of terms.

Later he became a lawyer and was admitted to the bar but never really practiced law-other than giving advice to friends and acquaintances. The reason, he felt he could not represent a guilty criminal or unjust civil client!

In 1845, Ephriam left Tiffin and settled in Wyandot Cty, OH where he bought 80 acres of land at $3.00 an acre. Years later he recieved a letter from a New York law firm informing him that he had inherited an estate in the Netherlands (from his mother's side) but would have to live in the Netherlands to claim it. He wrote back saying that "he wouldn't trade his 80 acres in Ohio for the whole blankety-blank country! and not to bother him any more with the matter".

He had the reputation of being able to:

"do anything he set his hand to, making his tools to build his own and another mansion, compete with hand-carved woodwork.. he was a lawyer and had been a teacher of advanced mathematics, and a farmer whose wheat crop never failed.
