Deed Book V, P. 128. Valuation of Estate. John Price and James Wroth viewed the land of the orphan of Henry Henrexon now in the possession of Wm. Ward. They found that the plantation is small with 2 small old log houses and one tobacco house not finished and much out of repair. They allow him to clear from the northwest end of the plantation eastward up a valley until it joins Capt. Frisby's land to get rails and timber to repair the place. They value the place at 400 lbs of tobacco yearly. Made 29 Mar 1756. JP: John Veazey. On the same day they viewed another piece of land of the orphan of Henry Henrexon now in the possession of Thomas Davis called Mary's Park and found the land uncleared and of no use. They allow him to settle the land on the lower end of the tract near the head of Sassafras Road where "the caterpillars has hilled" a quantity of timber and he may clear across the tract 40 acres and use the timber for the plantation. After the year 1740, if the land is settled, they will value it to 500 lbs of tobacco a year. Made 29 Mar 1735. JP: John Veazey. Rec: 3 Jul 1755. Win. Knight, Clerk. John Price and James Wroth viewed another piece of land of the orphan of Henry Hendrexon now in the possession of Thomas Davis called the Levell. They found the plantation very much out of repair and only one small tobacco house on it. The land well worn but little to clear. They allow him 3,000 or 4,000 tobacco hills to clear every year between the plantation and the road and to haul 400 rails for repairing the fencing. They value the place at 500 lbs of tobacco a year. Made 29 Mar 1735. JP: John Veazey. Rec: 3 Jul 1735. Wm. Knight, Clerk.
