

thelevell.txt

Susquehanna River. Except for 7 acres in the southwest corner which the James Ewing sold to William Husband. Made 7 Mar 1750. Wit: James Porter, Joss Ewing, James Knox. Ackn: same day by James Ewing, John Ewing William Ewing and also Rebeckah Ewing, mother of the said James, and William Ewing. JPs: Benj'a. Chew, Nathan Baker. George Gillespie paid 5x.10p alienation fine to Alex'r. Baird 13 Jun 1750. Rec: 14 Jun 1750. M. Bordley, Clerk.

Deed Book VII, P. 183. Deed. James Ewing of Cecil Co., planter, for £42.10s to John Ewing and William Ewing, of Cecil Co., planters, 56 acres of land, part of a called the Levell's Addition on the west side of Octerrara Creek at the dividing line between James Ewing's and William Husband's parts of the called the Levell. Made & Ackn: 7 Mar 1749/50. Wit: James Porter, Joss Ewing, Jas. Knox, JPs: Benj'a. Chew, Nathan Baker. John and William Ewing paid 2s.3p. alienation fine to Alex'r. Baird 13 Jun 1750. Rec: 14 Jun 1750. M. Bordley, Clerk.

Deed Book VII, P. 227. Deed. John Kimber of Cecil Co., planter, for £200, to Thomas Davis of the said county, 4 tracts of land: 76 acres, the remainder of a tract called Rattlesnake Neck at the dividing of Back Creek; 20 acres, part of Cockatrice on the south side of a branch of Back Creek at Rattlesnake Point adjoining Rattlesnake Neck (conveyed by Matthias Hendrickson to John Atkeson 18 Sep 1686); 2% acres, part of the tract called the Levell near Thomas Davis' house within the lines of Rattlesnake Neck, and 7 acres of land between Rattlesnake Neck and Back Creek by John Kimber's landing. All tracts except the 20 square feet where the burying ground now is. Made 12 Nov 1760. Wit: Peter Noxon, John Veazey. Ackn: same day by John Kimber and his wife Catharine. JPs: John Veazey, P. Bayard. Thomas Davis paid 1s.4p alienation fine to Alex'r. Baird 14 Nov 1750. Rec: 14 Nov 1750. M. Bordley, Clerk.

Deed Book VII, P. 468. Lease. Daniel Cheston of Bristol but late of Kent Co., Maryland, merchant, and Francisina Augustina his wife and daughter of the late Arriana Jennings, wife of the Honorable Edmond Jennings, esq., of Annapolis, for 5 shillings, to John Veazey of Cecil Co., 373 acres, part of 2 tracts of land lying between Sassafras and Bohemia Rivers in Cecil Co. called Frisby's Farm or Frisby's Prime Choice, by Scotchman's Creek, by Thomas Davis' land called the Level and by a tract called King's Aim. Made 31 Aug 1752. Wit: Thos, Luntley, Jno. Hope. Rec: 20 Jan 1752. M's. Bordley, Clerk.

Deed Book VII, P. 497. Deed. James Porter of Cecil Co., yeoman, for £130, to Thomas Love of the same place, yeoman, 235 acres of land, part of two tracts called Hopewell and Levell's Addition. James Porter reserves the liberty of having a wagon road leading from his dwelling house through the granted land to where the school house now stands. Made 26 Mar 1753. Wit: Wm. Husbands, Jr., John Ewing, John Smith. Ackn: same day by James Porter and Elinor his wife. JPs: John Smith, Nath'n. Baker. Thomas Love paid 9s.6p alienation fine to Matt's. Bordley 26 Mar 1753. Rec: same day.