Elizabeth is rumored to be a member of the Powhattan indian tribe. Never found any proof and if anyone has some, I would LOVE to have copies.

Information submitted by Connie [Lamp] Richardson, Jan 6, 1998: George Lamp "married" an "American Indian girl", Elizabeth, of the Powahatan tribe [a sub-tribe of the Shawnee], [as per land sale in Frederick Co., VA, 1813]. It is very probable that they were never formally wed since "legal" marriages with Indian women were very rare in those days. They had a large family including Joseph, Jacob, Delilah, Henry, and George, Jr. George, Sr. was a millwright.
