

asked to then take the oath of allegiance. The land in which they arrived was to be called Pennsylvania and many thousands of Germans, Dutch, Swiss and others were to settle and find a new home in America: This is from a Plaque on the wall of Frances Nybarger, Wheelwright, who is now deceased. It was read over the phone by her husband, Jack, September 2 1981>>

In Germany it is said that the name of Nieberger means a mountain Villager.

Will of Christian Neiberger, Shenandoah County, Virginia, 1787.

The records of deeds at Woodstock shows that Christian Neighbarger of county Dunmore on May 3 1777, paid twelve pounds for Lots 156 and 33 in Strasburg, from Peter Stover and his wife, Frainey.

This was the year after the Colonies began a revolt against the reign of King George III in the Spirit of 76, The sum involved in these deals was the Equivalent of $ 60.00 in 1940. County Dunmore was changed in 1777 to Shenandoah County, so this establishes Christian Neiberger senior, as a resident of that area 13 years before the birth of his twin sons, Christian and Jacob, in Winchester Virginia in 1764.

The Strasburg lots no 33 and 155 were sold to Jacob Neuberger for 100 pounds this was 3 days after the Will of Christian Sen. Jacob Neuberger the (Twin of Christian Jr.), and his wife, and Christian Jr. sold the said lots to David Stickley Oct 19 1815.

In Wayland's History of Shenandoah County, an entry under the name of Nieberger gives Christian's name as a householder, with seven persons, on the tax sheet, He did not own Slaves .

Notes for CATHERINE WISE:

There is no further record of Catherine that we can find other than she is believed to be of MULUENGON descent and apparently died shortly after coming to Ohio sometime around 1815 possibly in child birth as son, Samuel died, in 1815. Would like to solve this mystery.

The marriage record of Christian Neighbarger and Catherine Wise, was written in the old Neiberger (Neighbarger) Bible, and read to me over the phone by Mrs. Frances Wheelwright in 1980, she was ill and never did get a copy of the record sent to me as she had promised. This is a sad tale as the Bible cannot be found since her death. Sometimes we just find relatives too late. However, we do owe her a great thank you for sharing with us all that was written there, and her other research which provided us with many clues.
