C. A. WOODWORTH, Sr., farmer, P. O. Muscotah, is one of the pioneers of Atchison County, first settling in Walnut Township, five miles south of Atchison, in 1856, and in 1859 moved to the divide, in Mt. Pleasant Township, and in 1865 to his present location, thus having improved three farms in this county. He took an active part in politics in Territorial days, and was a member of nearly all the Free-state conventions held at that time, and in 1858, went to Washington, D. C. in the interests of that party. He was born in Seneca County, N. Y., in 1811, and was brought up a farmer, and ran a large wheat and stock farm, until 1851, when he went to Virginia, and bought a plantation of 1,000 acres. In 1855, he sold his plantation and came to this State. He was married in 1836, to Miss Ellen Gordon, of Orange County, N. Y., and has four children, viz: C. A., jr., Gilbert M., B. F. and David Gordon.
