Lithuanian State Historical Archives is the main repository of records for the Lithuanian history from the 13th century up to the declaration of the Independence of Lithuania in 1918 (civil registry and vital records up until to ourdays). The records of state institutions, religious communities, popular organizations and families that are maintained in this Archives also reflect the history of Russia, Belarus, Poland, Ukraine, Latvia and other countries.

The documents kept in the Archives comprise 8 large sets:
- Documents of various offices of the Grand Duchy of Lithuania dating back to 15th– 18th cc.;
- Fonds of offices and organisations of Vilnius, Kaunas and Suvalkai governorates of Russian Empire, and fonds of commissions responsible for the liquidation of offices to be evacuated to the Soviet Russia (1792–1918);
- Fonds of offices in Lithuania relating to the period of occupation by German Empire (1915–1918);
- Fonds of confessional institutions and communities operating in Lithuania (15th–20th cc.);
- Fonds of private persons and families (15th c.–1941);
- Documents collections (15th–20th cc.);
- Collections of microfilms of documents and collections of digital images of documents (13th–20th cc.);
