Jesse Lee, son of (Long) David Lee and Martha Blackman was born 16 March 1767. He married Elizabeth Blackman, daughter of Joseph Blackman. After his marriage, Jesse moved to Cross Creek (now Fayetteville), N.C. There, he and his wife's father acquired and operated a stage coach company to Tarborough, N.C., a distance of 125 miles. It took 60 horses to make the round trip. Lee and Blackman also sailed merchant ships to and from the West Indies. In 1801, a N.C. Senate bill was passed to keep Jesse Lee from taking into his possession any property Elizabeth had or might acquire --He had left her about that time and taken up with another woman. Elizabeth died in 1811. Jesse then married Susannah Langston. He and Elizabeth had two sons born to their marriage. The other children were born to Susannah. All of Jesse's children were:

- 1- Joab (1787-1859) married 1st to Alley Lee, 2nd to Bethany Blackman.
 - 2- A son who was born about 1789 and died by 1811.
 - 3- Jesse born 1805 who married Phereby Bundy.
 - 4- Joel who was born about 1808.
 - 5- James w. (no further info).
 - 6- John (no further info).
 - 7- Jonathan (no further info).
 - 8- Pharoah (no further info).
 - 9- Elizabeth who married Samuel Ingram.
 - 10- Sarah who married William Jernigan.
 - 11- Susanna who married Dr. Samuel smith.
 - 12- Elizabeth II who married Joseph Blackman.
 - 13- Nancy who married Willie Johnson.
 - 14- Josiah who died before 1831. And
 - 15- Phereba who married in 1847 to William N. Rose.
- Jesse' will went to probate court, Sampson County, in Nov term 1831.
He had died 6 Nov 1831

According to the book, "William and Peter Lee", page 19, by Lang and Long, Elizabeth Blackman was the wife of Jesse Lee and daughter of Joseph Blackman. The book lists the birth and death dates of Elizabeth as follows: Born: 18 March 1767, Died: 25 December 1811. Jesse married second in 1812, Susannah Langston.

LEE, Peter, Lieutenant, N.C. Continental Line

Soldier was the son of 'old' Peter Lee (1734-1804) and Mary Cato (1737-1777) who moved to the Sampson County area from Virginia very early. He was born about 1760 in Virginia.

Soldier made his will 1 Oct 1846. In it he names his children:

- 1- Peter R., IV (1806-185-) who married Dicey
- 2- A daughter who was deceased but had married Hudson, leaving two small daughters.
- 3- Jane who married Lewis Saucer (Sasser).
- 4- Mary who married William Noles (Knowles).
- 5- Pheraba who married Kedar Lee (son of Lemuel).
- 6- Kitsey who married Furney Tart. And
- 7- Vianna who married Alpha Lee. Soldier's will was taken for probate at the Nov. term of Sampson County Court 1846.
